PRESS RELEASE

GOVERNMENT TO CONVENE ALL PARTY CONFERENCE ON THE REVIEW OF THE ELECTORAL ACT

The Ministry for State President, Defence and Security (MSPDS), wishes to inform the nation that an All Party Conference will be convened to deliberate on the proposed review of the Electoral Act. The Conference will bring together all registered political parties represented in and outside Parliament to consider proposed reforms aimed at strengthening the integrity, transparency and inclusiveness of Botswana's electoral processes.

The proposed Electoral Act Review forms part of Government's broader commitment to deepen democratic governance and ensure that Botswana's electoral framework continues to reflect the highest standards of fairness, credibility and public confidence.

The Conference is scheduled to take place on the 31st July 2026 at Ave Maria at 0900hrs.
